

Creation and Application of Law

A Workshop on Paolo Sandro's
The Making of Constitutional Democracy

14 October 2022

11h – 17h

Room 204

Chaired by Giorgio Pino (Università Roma Tre)

Morning Session

Mathieu Carpentier (Université de Toulouse)

Guarantist lus or Lex superior? Some issues with Sandro's brand of constitutionalism

Aileen Kavanagh (Trinity College Dublin)

Law-making as a Collaborative Enterprise

Maris Köpcke (Universidad de Barcelona & University of Oxford)

Law and power

Graziella Romeo (Università Bocconi)

The invention of constitutional supremacy: legal traditions and constitutional democracy

Discussion & Replies by Paolo Sandro (University of Leeds)

Lunch Break

Afternoon Session

Jorge Baquerizo (Universidad de Girona & Università Roma Tre)

Further distinctions: on the idea of application of Law as the basis for constitutional democracy

José Juan Moreso (Universidad Pompeu Fabra)

The Discreet Charm of The Formalism: Paolo Sandro On Creating and Applying the Law

Nicola Muffato (Università di Trieste)

Contextualism and Legal Interpretation

Discussion & Replies by Paolo Sandro (University of Leeds)

